Types of Data PRADA USA Collects, Our Collection Methods, and Collection Purposes

Through the Site, we receive and collect data that you actively submit as well as data that we passively track:

Actively Submitted Data: When you purchase products through our Site or otherwise actively send us data, you are providing, and we collect, data such as your name, email address(es), billing address(es), delivery address(es), telephone number(s), and credit card information. In each such instances, you will know what data we collect through the Site, because you actively submit it. We collect actively submitted data primarily for the purpose for which you originally sent us the data (for example, to sell and deliver products). We may also use this data internally as research data to improve our products and services, and for purposes of advertising, promoting, and informing you about products, services, initiatives, and events; you can opt out of receiving marketing emails as explained below.

Passively Collected Data: When you visit the Site, we also passively collect information on your computer and Internet connection, such as the IP address of your computer and/or Internet service provider, the date and time you access the Site, the Internet address of websites from which you link to our Site, the computer technology you are using and your movements and preferences on our Site. We use technology that many other websites employ, including, without limitation, cookies, to collect information such as the aforementioned. We may also use such cookies to collect information in connection with future visits from that Site, to recognize you as a previous visitor and to track your activity on the Site. You may set your browser to notify you when a cookie is sent or to refuse cookies altogether, but certain features of the Site might not work without cookies. We reserve our right to also use other technologies such as Internet tags, web beacons, and navigational data collection tools (log files, server logs, or click stream). We passively collect this data primarily for purposes of administering, protecting and improving our Site and our systems, to better understand the preferences of our Site visitors, to identify server problems, to compile aggregated statistics about Site usage, to help personalize your experience of our Site, and to personalize offers.

Combinations: We may combine passively collected data with data that you actively submit so as to, for instance, provide better service to Site visitors, customize the Site based on your preferences, compile and analyze statistics and trends, to otherwise administer and improve the Site for your use, and to personalize offers (for example, combined information may allow us to recommend products to you based on what you have liked in the past).

Such third parties are subject to strict confidentiality obligations and may access and use your information only in accordance with our instructions and not for their own purposes.

We may also share your information to respond to law enforcement requests, court orders or other legal process or if we believe that such disclosure is necessary to investigate, prevent or respond to illegal activities, fraud, physical threats to you or others or as otherwise required by any applicable law or regulation.

Finally, we may share or transfer your information in connection with a prospective or actual sale, merger, transfer or other reorganization of all or parts of our business.
